LOCAL VISITORS TO THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION

Among those who attended the democratic national convention in San Francisco during the week were: Roy W. Cloud, D. E. O'Keefe, Dr. J. L. Ross, Lee Pipkin, James T. O'Keefe, George C. Ross, James V. Swift, James D. Hedge, H. E. Holmquist, A. McSweeney, Chris Stillison, Miss E. L. Falvey, J. J. Shields, Mrs. Geo. H. Buck, Donald W. Williams, M. H. Walsh, Father Kennedy, and Father J. J. Sullivan and Miss Louise Fitzpatrick.

All speak in glowing terms of the manner in which the convention is conducted. They are loud in their praises of the big auditorium where every comfort is afforded the delegates and guests. It is the best equipped building in the country for a gathering of that kind.

LOWN GETS CONTRACT

The firm of John Lown & Son, the local commission merchants, has been awarded the contract by the government to supply the base hospital at Menlo Park with fruit, vegetables and produce for the coming year. There was sharp bidding among city commission men, but Mr. Lown's bid was the lowest. The supply of fruit and vegetables to the institution amounts to thousands of dollars during the year. It is pretty well determined that the hospital is to be permanent. It is said that concrete buildings worth nearly $3,000,000 will be started this fall. The private gardens are to be the finest in the country.

BEAUTIFUL HOME SOLD

The beautiful home of W. C. Christopher on Randall avenue, Atherton, was bought this week by H. F. Arthur, San Francisco capitalist and society leader. The place consists of a very modern 6-room bungalow and nicely wooded grounds. The price, including furnishings, was $17,500 and the sale was made by Robert J. Letts.

FALL OF THE BASTILE FETE AT LA HONDA

The fall of the Bastile, the French Fourth of July, will be celebrated by a grand ball and supper at La Honda on Saturday evening, July 17. The dancing is to begin at 9 o'clock and continue all night. The affair will take place at Bonzagni's hall. Mr. Bonzagni is noted for the suppers he serves and on this occasion he will outdo himself in the meal he will furnish for his visitors. An excellent orchestra will furnish choice music. This is an annual event that is always well attended. The attendance this year is to be larger than ever before. The price of admission is $1. Supper will be served from 12 p. m. to 1 o'clock a. m. for $1.50 a cover.

WILLARD BATTERY SERVICE STATION RESUMES BUSINESS

The Willard battery service station on Main street resumed business in the old location during the week with a splendid equipment in all its branches. A. H. Dinwoodie, who is an expert in this line, gives every order entrusted to him his personal attention. He aims to give satisfaction. The Willard service is the best in the country.

STANFORD GALLERY HOLDS PROMINENT EXHIBITION

The final exhibition of paintings held at the Stanford art gallery is west this year. Comprised of over undoubtedly the most prominent exhibition of paintings shown in the 40 oil paintings, the collection represents the work of prominent painters of Boston, New York and Pennsylvania.

These paintings illustrate the various types or schools of contemporary painting. Here may be seen the painting with impressionistic technique, another with the more modern tendency, while still others are painted in the detailed manner.

A fine group of portraits is represented. "The Blue Jar" and "By the Window" are excellently rendered, and a large painting by Frederick G. Hall of Boston, entitled "Beatrice," is a very realistic subject. Figure groups and landscape paintings add to the variety of subjects and cover the entire rear gallery of the Thomas Welton Stanford art gallery.

Stanford University has presented to the community a remarkable series of exhibitions. Many have stated that the best exhibitions of art during the year have been shown at the Stanford galleries. These collections have totaled fifteen in number and have been largely arranged for and brought from the east by Pedro J. Lemos, the director of the galleries.

During the summer months the regular collections of Thomas Welton Stanford's paintings will be shown in the gallery, the changing exhibitions to again commence in October of this year.

The present exhibition of American oil paintings and Japanese original drawings will close on July 1. After that date Los Angeles has requested the exhibition and those who have not seen the collection should plan to do so.

The galleries are open every day to the public. No admission fee is charged and the hours are from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m.

DANCE TO BE GIVEN AT LA HONDA THIS EVENING

The young men of La Honda will give a dance in Sears' Hall this evening. It is to be the big event of the season of that place. Good music has been secured and an enjoyable time is assured all who attend. Many dancers from Redwood City are going to motor to the mountains and enjoy the evening of fun and merriment.

NEW STORE OPENED

The Redwood City shoe store at Five Points, formerly owned by C. Moltini, was sold this week to Domenico Nicoli of San Mateo. Mr. Nicoli also purchased the building and improvements. The store is being stocked with a full line of gents' furnishings, clothing, overalls and with shoes of every description. This enterprise will give a new impetus to that section of the city, which is improving rapidly, owing to the factories being established there. Five Points promises to be the industrial center of Redwood City.

THE WEEK'S EVENTS IN LOCAL CIRCLES

Charles A. Haines and wife of Dayton, Ohio, arrived in San Francisco last Saturday. Mr. Haines is a delegate to the democratic convention. They will visit their daughter, Mrs. George Cawthron, 908 Clinton street, Redwood City, before going north. This is Mr. Haines first visit to California. He is delighted with the Golden state.

William Thein, a popular and experienced chef of San Francisco, has taken over the Sequoia restaurant and grill. He will make a specialty of catering to local trade as well as to transient custom. Mr. Therin comes to Redwood City well recommended both as a business man and an expert chef who has had long experience in San Francisco and other western cities.

The local aviation field is one of the best known in the country.

STATE PROPERTY IN DEMAND

There was lively bidding for state property at the annual sale at the courthouse by the tax collector, A. McSweeney on Tuesday. Real estate in all parts of the county on which no taxes have been paid in five years was offered for sale. Over $500 was realized. Sixty-seven parcels were sold, the highest price received was for a lot in the Abbey Homestead, Colma, that was sold to C. M. Doxsee for $105. Lots in Redwood Park only brought a nominal figure. There is always a big demand for public property like this. Mr. McSweeney was kept busy and proved himself a clever auctioneer.

PRETTY HOME WEDDING

A pretty home wedding took place last Saturday evening when Miss Luella Ghilieri of this city became the wife of Joseph F. Goertzhain. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. H. Stevens of the First Congregational church. The bride was attended by Miss Ida Smith and Mrs. Lucile Jurgens, while William Burke acted as best man. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion and following the ceremony a wedding supper was served and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

On each side of the entrance are two large glass plate show windows twenty feet in length each finished in oak with a rich pannelling in the back. California labor will support Samuel M. Shortridge for United States Senator because the great leaders of labor have put their stamp of approval on him. They know he stands for protection to American labor.

Always temperate himself, Samuel M. Shortridge nevertheless believes that light wines and beers should be permitted to the people. He has always preached and practiced temperance. He is unalterably opposed to public saloons. All three of his opponents are bone-dry and sought the support of the Anti-Saloon League.

POPULAR DEMAND FOR SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE

Popular demand for the election of Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States Senator, is finding expression in the organization of numerous Shortridge-for-Senator clubs in all parts of the state.

Sacramento, Vallejo, cities and towns in Marin and Sonoma counties, most of the assembly districts in San Francisco, every township in Alameda county and several cities of San Mateo county are already on the Shortridge map and many more clubs are in process of organization.

Women voters are particularly enthusiastic in their support of Shortridge. Shortridge organizations among women voters are ready to complete formation in Sonoma, San Rafael, Bolinas and other parts in Marin and Sonoma counties. Two women's organizations for Shortridge have been formed in the thirty-second assembly district alone in San Francisco.

The women voters of the state scarcely need to be told of Shortridge's long years of labor to bring them their political rights. Mr. Shortridge was among the first Californians to advocate the enfranchisement of women. During thirty years of almost constant campaigning for the Republican party, he has never overlooked the opportunity to impress the rank and file of the party and patricularly the leadership of his party with the justice of granting women the full rights of American citizenship.

Samuel M. Shortridge's position on the Japanese question has been known for 30 years. During all of that time he has preached the exclusion of Oriental labor.

SENATOR HARDING FORCES UNITED IN CALIFORNIA

Suport of the Republican party national ticket, Senator Warren G. Harding for president and Governor Calvin Coolidge for vice-president, is urged by Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States Senator, whose campaign is meeting with enthusiastic and widespread support in all parts of the state.

Shortridge, who was the only senatorial candidate to enlist in the state campaign for Senator Johnson at the presidential primary election, took up the fight for the Republican party as soon as the G. O. P. choice was made at the Chicago convention. He said:

"While some good people preferred others, and most of us in California sought and supported Senator Johnson's nomination by the Republican party, all of us will support the choice of that party for the Presidency.

"It is the duty of all Republicans to march forward under the flag of the party to an assured victory under the leadership of Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge."

Shortridge is repeating his message of Republicanism in all of his addresses as he did on his recent tour of San Joaquin valley from Modesto to Bekersfield, visiting some 25 cities and towns. In the San Joaquin citrus belt, his support of the protective tariff principle was particularly well-received.

Shortridge is and has for many years been recognized as one of California's foremost Republicans. For the past thirty-five years he has given most generously of his time and his talents to the Republican party, stumping the state in support of both its principles and candidates and always at his own expense.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH OF WARREN OLNEY, JR.

The candidacy of Justice Warren Olney of the supreme court for election at the November election meets with general approval of the judiciary of the state, who have been impressed with the ability and learning displayed by Justice Onley upon the bench.

Warren Olney, Jr., was born in San Francisco October 15, 1870. He was the son of Warren Olney, a prominent lawyer of San Francisco, well known throughout the state and a veteran of the Union Army in the Civil War. He married in 1899 and has three children.

Warren Olney, Jr., was educated from the public schools of Oakland, California, after which he attended the University of California for four years, spent one year in graduate work at Harvard, and completed his legal education at Hastings College of Law, graduating at the head of his class from that institution.

After graduating from law school in 1894 he egaged in the practice of law with his father in San Francisco.

One year later, in 1895, he was appointed assistant professor of law at the Hastings College of Law, and continued in that position until 1902.

In 1902 he resigned from that position and became a lecturer at the newly founded School of Jurisprudence at the University of California, from which pocition he resigned later on in order to devote himself exclusively to his private practice. In 1907 he became general attorney for the Western Pacific Railroad Company, then being built into the state.

In 1910 he became a member of the firm of Page, McCutchen, Olney and Knight, of San Francisco, which firm was later to be known as McCutcheon, Olney & Willard, and from which firm Mr. Olney resigned upon his appointment to the Supreme bench in 1919.

In 1911 Mr. Olney was appointed attorney for the Board of Regents of the University of California, from which position he likewise resigned upon his appointment to the bench.

Mr. Olney, at the present time, is one of the trustees of the Hastings College of Law, of San Francisco.

During the war Mr. Olney was appointed a member of the State Registration Bureau, which had charge of arranging for and carrying through the matter of registration for the draft, and upon the organization of the Draft Boards he was appointed a member and became chairman of the Federal Exemption Board of Division 1, Northern District of California.

He was also appointed a member of and became chairman of the State Military Welfare Commission and served in that capacity throughout the war. He also served as a member of the Advisory Cabinet of the State Council of Defense.

In February, 1919, Mr. Olney was appointed associate justice of the Supreme bench, to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mr. Justice Sloss.

Recently Mr. Olney was one of the persons agreed to by both sides to arbitrate the differences between the street and interurban railway company operating on the east side of San Francisco Bay, and its men, in regard to wages, hours and working conditions. Justice Olney was made chairman of the board and within less than thirty days after its appointment the board made an award, which has received the commendation of both sides for its fairness and justice.

THE BIG CONVENTION GOING ON IN SAN FRANCISCO

That San Francisco "knows how" was fully demonstrated in the way in which the city is handling the big Democratic convention and entertaining the delegates who have come from every portion of the United States and insular possessions. San Francisco has shown wonderful tact and ability in the manner in which it is handling the big crowd and entertaining it. The weather is ideal, cool, comfortable, invigorating and the kind that makes the eastern fellow feel that he would like to live in sunny California. Flowers and fruit are fairly showered upon the visitors, who will go away with pleasing impressions of the Golden State and the hospitality of its people.

The convention, the first national political convention to be held in this state, is a big gathering of brainy men determined to put forth their best candidate for the presidency.

This history making assemblage is highly educational to those attending and all attend who can get into the big auditorium. It is to be regretted that more of the citizens of the country cannot listen to the deliberations of these big national political conventions. A better understanding would prevail among the voters and the people generally. There would be less rancor and a better patriotic feeling would be engendered.

Many from the county attended the various sessions of the convention during the week. All agree that it is made up of an able body of men intent upon doing what is best for the country and selecting a good man for the presidency.

No wonder the Johnson organization is back of Shortridge. Shortridge was one of the few men in California who was upholding Johnson's hands during the unpopular days of Johnson's league of nations' fight. While Johnson's other friends were busy sending him petitions imploring him to "lay-off," Shortridge was wiring "Stand firm for America and America will stand firm for you."

Hot Water

MORE NECESSARY IN SUMMER THAN IN WINTER

Summer brings no lessening demand for HOT WATER.

It is then that an abundant supply is even more necessary because of the many articles of light wearing apparel that enter into the family wash.

Summer comfort requires many fresh, cool changes of clothing. The children's dresses and washable suits must be kept fresh and clean in spite of the wonderful oportunities to get them dirty playing out-of-doors.

Then there are the frequent baths that are so delightfully refreshing at the end of the hot days and dusty walks or drives on country roads.

The unfailing source of all the hot water you can use in an INSTANTANEOUS GAS WATER-HEATER. It is not expensive to operate because gas is consumed only when hot water is being drawn.
